

Medcor's workplace injury triage will help you provide better care for your policyholders' injured workers and lower your workers' comp costs

Medcor is the leading healthcare company that cuts workers' compensation and employer healthcare costs through telephonic triage and onsite clinics.

Medcor's workplace injury triage will:

- ✓ Consistently lower workers' comp costs by reducing unnecessary claims
- ✓ Result in highly consistent first-aid recommendations
- ✓ Immediately connect injured workers with a registered nurse who quickly guides them to the appropriate care at the right time
- ✓ Reduce lag time in reporting, further reducing claims expense
- ✓ Reduce fraud through immediate reporting and recorded phone calls

Founded in 1984, Medcor works with Fortune 100 corporations, small businesses, insurance carriers and government entities to keep workers' compensation costs down.

“ Our experience with Medcor has been nothing short of fantastic...Medcor has truly benefited us, our agents and our insureds. We believe strongly in nurse triage. Medcor has been able to deliver on every estimate and promise they made. In fact, they have exceeded those expectations. ”

– Dave Gross, President and CEO
